BINGHAM
TABLETThe Unveiling to Take Place at Four.

The exercises to take place this afternoon at Punahou at 4 o'clock, when the Bingham tablet will be unveiled, will be a significant ceremony. There is some special reason why each person who appears should have a part in the program. The music, which is in charge of Miss Caroline Castle, has been chosen because of its appropriateness. Especially is this true of the hymn, "Head of the Church Triumphant," which the whole audience will join in singing. It was sung at the ordination of Father Bingham and Father Thurston, at the Park street church in Boston just prior to their embarkation, and on the ship by Mr. Bingham and Mr. Thurston, both of whom possessed fine voices, as they lay off the leeward shore of Hawaii.

An ode will be read by Mrs. L. B. Coan, which was written especially in honor of Father Bingham and his missionary labors in Hawaii, by the poet William Bingham Tappan, a relative of the family.

A special invitation is extended to all those who are connected with the missionary families and to those who are now doing Christian work in the Islands, to the cousins, the Hawaiian band, the Daughters of Hawaii, and the Hawaiian Historical Society, to old Punahou students and friends, and to the Hawaiians who are interested. The public will also be cordially welcomed.

The Hawaiian band will begin to play at 3:30 p. m. and the program, which is as follows, will begin at 4 o'clock:

NO SUNDAY LEAGUE BALL

policy of playing on Sunday, but if the clubs should unanimously request it he would feel that the trustees should grant such request.

Mr. Thurston stated that he felt the trustees' position was largely an advisory one and agreed with Mr. Whitney that the decision should primarily be left with the clubs. As the clubs had asked the advice of the trustees, he would advise them, that in his opinion, it was unsound to attempt a Sunday schedule—that a large number of earnest patrons of the game were so strongly opposed to Sunday baseball that he thought as a financial proposition it would fail to achieve the results sought.

Mr. Thurston also thought that it would tend to professionalize the game and it would be disastrous. He called the attention of the members to the breaking up of the game when it was played on the old grounds on the Makiki Plains, by professionalism, which resulted in there being no baseball for five or six years.

He suggested also that the players who were accustomed to having Sunday to themselves, would, or at least many of them, be disinclined to play on Sunday, after the novelty had worn off, and the game would lose in interest.

Mr. Isenberg stated that Trustee Allen was unable to be present owing to illness, and that Trustee Chillingworth was opposed to Sunday games.

A general discussion then took place, the general opinion being that the league should act as a whole and not act in such a manner as to cause a split therein. The action was then taken as given above.

This leaves the field open to the Midwinter League, which will commence a series of Sunday games at Kapiolani Park following immediately after the conclusion of the major league series. Tom Ulukou has had conference with the captains and managers of the Midwinter League teams and their affairs are practically left to his management.

This will insure a series of excellent games at Kapiolani Park on Sunday afternoons, with the Aiala Artillery, Makiki, Pacifics and Punahou in the league.

ODD OCCURRENCES ABROAD.

One of the guests at a recent golden wedding at Danzig, Germany, was the bride's mother, aged 91.

Finding a long, rusty nail in his morning roll, a Viennese citizen charged his baker with endangering the public safety. The baker was fined four dollars.

A Birmingham tin worker attempted to commit suicide the other day by drinking hydrochloric acid. A policeman concocted an emetic by scraping some whitening from the ceiling and mixing it with water. It saved the man's life.

A disastrous fire occurred at the winery of Thomas Hardy & Sons, who owns the oldest vineyards in South Australia. The nearest water mains were half a mile away, so the firemen played jets of wine on the burning buildings for an hour and a half.

A recent number of the Cape Mercury contained this advertisement: "Wanted, for German West Africa, a man to look after one horse, two cows and three pigs. One who can impart the rudiments of French, singing and the piano to children preferred."

A blind man made a curious defense at Birmingham, England, to a charge of smashing a plate-glass window worth £15. He had been blind, he said, for seven years. On the night in question, he cried for assistance to cross the road, but no one came. Then he heard some one at a distance and struck at what used, when he could see, to be boards surrounding waste ground. He was astounded when he heard the sound of broken glass. The jury acquitted him and he was discharged.

An engineer named Knorr, a German who has become a naturalized Russian, built four of the great bridges on the Trans-Siberian railway, including the big Yenisei and Obi bridges, which cost, respectively, $2,350,000 and $2,000,000. They were great engineering feats, and brought him international fame in his profession. But he was pursued by a curious fatality. A writer in "T. A. T." says: He had five daughters, who were famous in Russia for their beauty, and whom he loved dearly. Just after his first bridge was completed one of them died; and as each of his three succeeding bridges was built, another died. He would not build a fifth bridge.

George Porter, lately second engineer on the Mauna Loa, has been promoted to be chief on the Noeau.
